THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI S. REGUPATHY): (a) the required notification for giving effect to the provisions of the code of Criminal Procedure (Amendment) Act, 2005 has not been issued.

(b) and (c) Representations have been received from various Lawyers Associations including the Bar Council of India objecting to certain provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure (Amendment) Act, 2005. Their grievances need to be examined, before giving effect to the Act. It is therefore, proposed to amend sub-section (2) of section 1 of the Code of Criminal Procedure (Amendment) Act, 2005 to enable the Central Government to notify different dates for implementation of various provisions of the Act.

ISI Network

968. SHRIMATI N. P. DURGA: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that terror infrastructure created by the ISI is still intact inspite of India taking so many CBMs;

(b) whether it is also a fact that the ISI network is recruiting, financing and training terrorists not only in the North-West but also in the North-east; and

(c) if so, what concerted efforts Government of India is taking to curb these?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI SHRIPRAKASH JAISWAL): (a) and (b) According to available inputs, Pakistan has not taken any significant action to dismantle the infrastructure of terror on its soil and that Pakistan ISI continues to provide logistic support including recruitment, arms training and finances to the terrorists in J&K and other parts of the country.

(c) To counter the menance of terrorism, the Government pursues a multi-dimensional approach to deal with terrorists activities. In order to curb such activities, the Government has taken measures which include strengthening of border management to check infiltration, galvanizing the intelligence machinery, ensuring improved technology, weaponry and equipment of security forces both at the Centre and in the States, neutralizing plans of terrorist/anti-national elements by well coordinated intelligence based operations. Besides, the steps have also been taken to achieve bilateral/multi-lateral cooperation to deal with the menace of terrorism, given its global dimensions.
